Women Who Want Very Good Clothes and At the Same Time Who

Get Your Money's Worth is simply a matter of knowing "how" to spend it.

"I want the best I can get for my money," said a woman—

"I am free to buy where I please," and it is not the salesman's business to give me his opinions unless I want him to do so, nor to tell me how much poorer the other stores are than this," said a man.

"It is the goods you have to show me and the courteous, prompt and intelligent service you give me that should decide whether I buy here or not."

Thank you, Madam! Thank you, Mr. Plain-Spoken Man, what you have said hits the nail squarely on the head, and it is for you and others like you we have aimed to make a store that you will like.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Will Address Brotherhood.
The speakers' committee of the Clarksburg Brotherhood has secured the Rev. H. S. Bumgardner, former superintendent of the Elkins district of the Methodist Episcopal church, but now of St. Andrew's church at Parkersburg, to deliver the principal address at the meeting to be held Sunday at 2:30 p. m. at the First Methodist Episcopal church. This will be the first meeting since the summer vacation and a large attendance is expected.

Dr. Shaw Answers.
Dr. Shaw answers an anti-suffragist as follows:
"The anti-suffragists have said truly that when women have the vote they will have less time for charity and philanthropy. They are right—when we have the vote there will be less need for charity and philanthropy. The highest ideal of a republic is not a long bread line nor a soup kitchen. We would give to the people such opportunity that they can buy their own bread and make their own soup."

For Visitors.
Complimentary to Mrs. Fleming Howell, Miss Margaret Howell and Mrs. Charles Abel, Mrs. Robert R. Wilson and Mrs. E. Bryan Templeman entertained at a small but beautifully appointed card party from 3 to 5 o'clock this afternoon at the Waldo hotel. Yellow chrysanthemums and ferns were used in the floral decorations, and upon the arrival of the guests ices were served at an attractive table at which Mrs. Richard T. Lowndes presided assisted by Miss Howell, Miss Julia Davis and Miss Mary Hart. Later auction bridge was played in the drawing room.

On Auto Trip.
Mr. and Mrs. Philip P. Steptoe and Mr. and Mrs. Lynn S. Hornor left today on an extended automobile trip in the East in the Steptoe car.

Classes Resumed.
Miss Anne Boggess has announced she will resume her classes in dancing Friday evening, October 13, in the auditorium of St. Mary's high school and will continue them until the Lenten season.

Chapter Meets.
A very interesting meeting of the Mission chapter of the Central Presbyterian church was held in the home of Mrs. M. W. Smith Friday evening. "Korea" was the evening's discussion.

Circle Meets.
A very enjoyable meeting of the members of the East End Sewing Circle was held from 7:30 to 10 o'clock Friday evening in the home of Miss Margaret Gill on East Pike street. Fancy work was the pleasant diversion and later refreshments were served by the hostess.

MR. E. CLYDE BECKETT,
Chorister of the First M. E. Church, will be in Clarksburg this winter again to teach vocal. Studio 370 Mechanic street. Bell phone 1777-J.

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

To Exterminate Mice.
Buy a large oil-can that would hold a half pint of the kind you see on the sewing machine. Mix a half package of red pepper with enough hot water to fill can and screw on the top tightly, shake well, then squirt in any place you hear them gnawing, or in the holes they have already made in the cracks between the baseboards and floor. The water carries the pepper down between the walls and wood and mice will not stand red pepper. Do it about once a month.

OPINION

Is Handed Down by State Supreme Court in Important Harrison County Case.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
CHARLESTON, Oct. 7.—It has been decided by the supreme court of appeals of West Virginia that non-resident creditors of an insolvent foreign corporation, being interested therein, may maintain a suit in the courts of the state to obtain the appointment of an ancillary receiver of the assets of the corporation located here and for the sequestration thereof for the benefit of all creditors. The supreme court recently reversed the decree of the circuit court

Landslide For Hughes Is Predicted By Elkins

Majority Will Simply Stagger and Dumbfound the Democratic Party, He Says.

"Hughes will be elected and by such a smashing large majority as to stagger and dumbfound the Democratic party. It is going to be a landslide in my opinion, based on travels I have made in various states and investigations of the prevailing public sentiment. I never felt more certain of anything in my life than that the Republican party will be swept back into control of this government in all branches."

Thus declared ex-Senator Davis Elkins, who stopped off in Clarksburg today on his way from the southern part of the state to his home in Morgantown.

"As the national ticket will go, so will go the state ticket," he continued. "It is not reasonable to think for a minute that Hughes and Fairbanks will not carry West Virginia by from 25,000 to 30,000, and any one or more candidates on either the state or congressional tickets will fall of Harrison county, and remanded the cause of Brunner and others against the York Bridge Company and others in which this question was involved.

Judge W. N. Miller rendered the opinion of the higher court. In the syllabus he says the resident general creditors of a defunct corporation, having previously obtained liens upon its property, are not entitled to any priority or preference over non-resident creditors in the distribution of the funds obtained from the assets by the local or ancillary receiver.

"All creditors of such corporation of the same class are on principles of equality entitled to share ratably in the distribution of the whole estate of the corporation, regardless of their place of residence," says the supreme court.

RIFLE TEAM

To Take Part in Florida Matches Will Be Sent from West Virginia.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
CHARLESTON, Oct. 7.—Those of the National Guard of West Virginia who have qualified as expert riflemen or a larger number of them, will be given an opportunity at once to demonstrate whether they are sufficiently expert to become members of a team that will go to Jacksonville, Fla., to take part in the national rifle matches. For the last several years West Virginia has been represented by a military team at these matches but because the Second Infantry is being held in readiness for orders to move to New Mexico, some delay has been encountered in getting a team in readiness. It is believed by Adjutant General John C. Bond that it is possible to select a team of riflemen from the two West Virginia Infantry regiments which will be able to make a good showing even among the more practiced military teams of the various states.

to make the goal.

"There has been, in my judgment, as complete a union of Republican factions as disclosed in the June primary in the state, as there has been between Republicans and Progressives in the nation. We know how thorough and satisfactory that has been. It has been demonstrated time and again in special elections, in all state primaries and most definitely in the sweeping party victory in Maine. No Republicans in any material number are harping on factionalism within their party now. That is the Democratic hobby just now. Their game is so plainly apparent that it deceives no Republicans or anybody else who have an intelligent idea of political methods.

"Judge Robinson is making splendid speeches everywhere. They are high class, being both logical and eloquent. He is one of the finest orators that we have in the state. His canvass is being conducted along dignified lines compatible with the high office to which he aspires and to which all signs point he will be elected to administer during the ensuing four years."

ZUPPKE HAS MOST OF LAST FALL'S STARS

Coach Zuppke of Illinois.

Coach Zuppke of Illinois expects a big season with his football team this fall after discovering that practically all of last season's stars he depended on will be present this year. Applegran, last season's star guard, is the only unexpected loss. Christensen and Hanschman, two stars of last year who were thought lost, have returned.

SPECIAL NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS IN TOWN OF NORTHEVIEW.

All parties owing taxes to the town of North View will be given a discount of 2 1/2 per cent if paid before the 30th day of November, 1916, at the mayor's office in the town of North View, where the tax books are

What a clearaway, so early in the season?

Yes, and the women who are pursewise are going to save from $3.60 to $7.10, on her fall and winter suit.

There are exactly fifty-six of them in this five hour dispersal at $17.50, on Tuesday afternoon.

They are sample suits, each and every one of them, no two alike. Suits that were sent us for orders but which were not duplicated.

21 Suits in Navy Blue

15 Suits in African Bown

12 Suits in Dark Green

8 Suits in Black

There are sizes 14, 16, 18, and 20 for Misses; 36 to 46 for women of regular form; and a few odd sizes for large women. You will find serges, poplins, gabardines and wool velour and novelty checks. There will be no charges for alterations. We recommend the above to all women who ordinarily pay $25.00 for their suits.

Serge and Silk Dresses, $17.50 Special!

A rack full of ones and twos of a great number of fashions—frocks that are quite unusual at the price—$17.50. These frocks are simple Russian styles with pleats of which there are several different models, and in the silk you will find black and navy taffeta. In charmeuse and crepe meteor are navy, brown, green, in straight line youthful styles; all in all some forty dresses at the one price, $17.50.

Treat Your Coat to a Fancy Silk Lining--New Fancies $1.50

Why do you not have more fancy linings in your garments? asked a lady. Plain linings are used more than heretofore, owing to the increased cost of material and manufacturing. It requires finer figuring to get clothes out at a price. Fancy linings in garments cost $2.00 to $2.50 extra for women who care to.

We direct attention to a special shipment of lining silks just received. They are poplin weave such as this season has in full coats. One is a rich peacock blue with cluster stripes of black; another pearl gray in a checker-board design, and thirdly a gorgeous rose with a scroll design in black. They are 36 inches wide and cost $1.50 a yard.—(Silk Section, Main Floor.)

Let Your Wardrobe for Fall Include Several of the Desirable $1 Wirthmor Waists

Four new styles are on sale today.

1.00 each. The cost of these waists is so very small that even a person of the most moderate means can well afford to have several of them. In fact, its real economy to have a goodly number, for aside from the satisfaction that comes from having many different styles, frequent changes insure longer life for all of them.

"Wirthmor" is more than a coined word. It is the symbol of a higher standard of waist values.

Just one good merchant in every city can sell Wirthmor waists. They are sold here exclusively.—(Blouse shop, Second floor.)

THE OTHER HALF

(By Associated Charities.)

When a burly unwashed film-flammer comes into the office and exhibits a blister in his hand and arm that, of course, totally disables him and is so large and raw that it would melt the heart of Old Scourge himself, and he tells his brave tale of how he waded through a hell of fire to rescue the children from a burning dormitory of a children's home your heart is touched and you donate generously. After the hero has gone you cogitate on the case and it dawns upon you slowly and painfully that the bum has worked you easily, and you perhaps, recite a line or two of Bret Hart's "I Was With Grant." After the farmer had fed the tramp with his "frugal store" he said: "How fares my boy, my soldier boy, Of the old Ninth army corps? I'll warrant he bore him gallantly

In the smoke and the battle's war." The bum had had his dinner and was at the outer gate, and he waved glad farewell as he shouted: "I know him not," the stranger said, and as I should have remarked before, I was with Grant in Illinois Three years before the war." The Associated Charities everywhere have the "aged stranger" to deal with. He preys upon individual generosity everywhere and always has a fetching story to tell. The work of the Associated Charities has been a work of education in every community in which it has been tried. When people think of charity they think of the old-time methods of charity work—simply giving to the needy, with more stress laid upon the giving than in the possible good that the gift might accomplish.

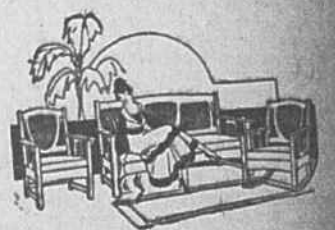

Period Furniture

This Mahogany Suite, complete, with chair and Rocker $195.00

PERIOD PARLOR PIECES

One of the new and novel ideas this year in parlor furniture is the cane seat and back, either plain or upholstered. The accompanying illustration gives some idea of its beauty, but it will be more appreciated when seen on our floors.

WILLIAM AND MARY SUITE

This is a reproduction of the style during the reign of William and Mary of England. The small cut gives a fairly clear conception of its design and beauty. This suite is handsome, stylish and serviceable, which three characteristics have made it one of our most popular sellers.
